To complete your Financial Assistance application, you will need:

- Proof of income for all adults in your house       Proof of expenses, if using to qualify

Proof of income is required for you and all members of your household.

- ✓ Acceptable documentation can include: W-2 Forms or two most recent pay stubs (if no W-2); Income tax returns; Any other income documentation (e.g., unemployment benefits statement, Social Security benefit letter, public assistance benefits letter, child support/alimony documentation). If you are not working and have no source of income, provide a letter of support from the person supporting you or the individual you are living with.
- ✓ Patients applying for the Sliding Fee Discount Program must provide proof of income for all household members sharing income or legally responsible for each other's debts.

Proof of expenses are only required if you are using cost of living expenses in your sliding scale calculation for the household.

- ✓ Acceptable documentation can include: Monthly mortgage, lease agreement, or rent bill (up to $1,250 per monthly allowable), and/or tuition or childcare bills.

Other Requirements and Reminders:

- ✓ Only Medical patients may receive one (1) visit under presumed eligibility. Documentation must be submitted after this visit to continue receiving sliding fee discounts.
- ✓ Behavioral Health patients may receive services under presumed eligibility for up to 30 days. Documentation must be submitted by the end of this period.
- ✓ If the required documentation is not provided within the required timeframe, patients will be charged full MRHC fees for any visits.
- ✓ Households must disclose any active health insurance coverage. All health insurance will be billed, but the patient responsibility will not exceed the assigned nominal charge, unless obligated by law.
- ✓ No one is ever refused care due to inability to pay. However, households must complete the application to receive discounts. Payment is expected at the time of service.
- ✓ If you do not qualify for financial assistance, yet have an inability to pay, you may write a letter explaining your circumstances and request a review of your application or account.
- ✓ Dental services are also available under the Sliding Fee Discount Program. A separate dental Sliding Fee information sheet is available for more details.
